

Scents and sensibility

by lachelle via

MARC JACOBS
The lush heart of gardenia with a hint of musk and ginger. An uncomplicated scent that works well for any occasion. ($60)

CLASSIC

You like it. But will he?

You want to be alluring and indulge in your favorite fragrance, but the steamy months of summer can make perfume a little overwhelming. The editors at p.s. went nose-first into product-testing to help find some “scents-ible” solutions. Here are the ones that will leave you smelling like a rose—or gardenia or narcissus—without driving away the fellas.

FRAGRANCE IS PRETTY IN PINK THIS SUMMER

SUI LOVE
Anna Sui’s mood-lifting blend of floral and fruity notes. Bergamot and passion fruit lead the way and are complemented by marigold, orange flower and musk. ($38)

ENERGETIC

ESCADA SEXY GRAFFITI
Think pink grapefruit and strawberries. This fun, citrusy scent is tamed with an undercurrent of vanilla and musk. ($38)

FLIRTY

GUCCI RUSH 2
An inviting floral blend with narcissus at its center. Freesia, black currant and oakmoss keep this sexy scent from being too intense. ($40)
